57TH ANNUAL EVENING of PURPOSE BLACK TIE GALA

About Us

Parc Center for Disabilities provides critical services and life-enriching programs to over 900 children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities annually. Our person-centered approach has garnered Parc's reputation as a progressive leader in our industry and in the community for over 70 years.

Our Mission

Parc Center for Disabilities is the premier provider of life-changing services to children and adults with developmental disabilities in the Tampa Bay area. We structure our services around three centers of excellence: Children's Services, Adult Day Training, and Residential Care to ensure a lifetime of support for individuals and families.

Our Vision

Building a community where individuals with developmental disabilities are visible, valued, and able to live life to the fullest.
